

Public Panel

Europe on Edge – New Realities in EU Foreign Policy

Wednesday, 13th March 2019, 7:00 pm
Schader-Forum, Goethestraße 2, 64285 Darmstadt

The European Union is largely viewed as a cornerstone of European stability and prosperity. Currently, however, EU foreign policy experiences a broad array of new challenges, resulting in an ongoing reconfiguration of power as well as increased contestation of liberal principles within its core values. Furthermore, the EU has to deal with troublesome actors and neighbours in its immediate proximity. As a result, migration flows promote domestic turmoil and enhance populist, nationalist and anti-establishment movements harbouring Eurosceptic sentiments on one hand as well as scrutinizing existing institutions on the other. International turbulences appear in parallel to EU-domestic conflicts, ranging from austerity, Brexit to growing protectionist measures.

This panel will discuss these emerging challenges to European foreign policy, including what they mean for communication and diplomatic coordination.

The foundation, Schader-Stiftung, and the research network “EU Foreign Policy Facing New Realities” (CA17119) of the European Cooperation in Science and Technology (COST), led by Prof. Michèle Knodt, Technische Universität Darmstadt, are organizing this event together.

Welcome Address:

Alexander Gemeinhardt, Chairman of the Board, Schader-Stiftung
